

Redbank Valley Historical Society Inc.

Presents

Voices from the Redbank Valley

Ten years of research and writing by members of the Redbank Valley Historical Society Inc., has resulted in the production of a collection of historic articles about the history of the Redbank Valley from the late 1880's to the present. The book contains 450+ pages of stories about people, places and events, many historic photographs and a comprehensive index of family names.

A limited number of Voices from the Redbank Valley will be published following the receipt of all preorders. To reserve your copy of this popular historic account of Redbank Valley, complete the order form . Your book(s) will be available by early winter and in time for Christmas. There will be a pick up time and place announced. If you prefer the book(s) to be mailed to you, a shipping and handling charge will be added.
